

WEC 16: CLASH OF THE TITANS

Fri. Aug. 19, 2005

Lemoore, California- World Extreme Cagefighting once again returned to the Palace Indian Gaming Center in Lemoore, California for a night of action packed fights in "Clash of the Titans II". Six of the night's eleven fights were finished by submission, but there was a considerable amount of stand up action as well.

The fight of the night was a slugfest between Casey "The Underdog" Olson and Rolland Parli. These two 155 lbs. put on quite a show, trading heavy punches and showing excellent wrestling skills. Parli was rocked a minute into the first round, but came back swinging, forcing Olson to back off momentarily. Parli was then knocked down during a big exchange when a huge right uppercut slammed into his jaw. Olson followed him down to finish the job, but was stifled when Parli showed excellent recovery skills, hanging on tight. The two clinched for the next minute, until another big exchange saw Parli knocked out from a crushing left hook.

Casey Olson wins his [inaugural] fight by KO at 4:58 of round 1.
